Powell Grad is Clerk's Office Employee of the Month

Daniel Wolfenbarger, 2004 graduate of Powell High School has been selected as the Employee of the Month for December by the Knox County Clerk's Office.

Wolfenbarger was nominated by his co-workers for his ability to help with any project that needs to be done. Selection committee members also cited his high level of professionalism.

"Daniel will do anything for anybody", explains Knox County Clerk, Foster D. Arnett, Jr. "His co-workers say great things about his can-do attitude and tremendous work ethic. It makes him an exemplary employee."

Wolfenbarger was taking high school business classes when the Knox County Clerk needed proficient typists for its title keying division. He started working for the clerk in 2003 and has since become a driver's license clerk in the Knox Center satellite office.

Wolfenbarger has a degree in marketing and graphics from Pellissippi State.
