Mayor Jacobs to Honor Long's Drug Store

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will recognize the owners of Long's Drug Store on Wednesday, January 10, during lunch.

The long-time family-owned pharmacy will close its doors for the last time on Jan. 16 after almost seven decades of serving the community. Long's, which also was known for welcoming political leaders representing some of the county and state's biggest offices, also offered free prescription deliveries to folks' doors, and helped patients manage their medications.

The store is located at 4604 Kingston Pike. Mayor Jacobs will issue a proclamation and have lunch there from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
