Mayor Jacobs to Address Creative Social Connections, County Offices Closed Friday

Knoxville, Tennessee—During his Weekly Update, which posts later today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will talk about socially connecting with loved ones at a time when folks are encouraged to maintain an appropriate physical distance.

The Mayor will also speak to the importance of movement and exercise and their impact on emotional and physical health.

The update will post at 3:30 p.m.

Knox County government offices will be closed on Friday, April 10, in observance of Good Friday. Offices will resume “essential staff” operations on Monday, April 13.
