County Issues Statement About Phased Re-Opening Plan

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— Knox County Communications Director Mike Donila issued the following statement about how the phased reopening plan addresses worship centers.

"In the phased reopening plan there was a section about worship centers. The guidelines included in that section were NOT intended to serve as government mandates but for informational purposes and as suggested best practices. To eliminate any confusion, this section has been removed from the plan and Knox County will follow Governor Lee's guidance."
