Mayor Jacobs to Participate in Americans for Prosperity Livestream Today

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will participate in a live video stream with the influential grassroots advocacy group, Americans for Prosperity today at 2:30 p.m. on the group's Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/fightback/>).

This afternoon's event, hosted through the Zoom platform, will feature Mayor Jacobs and AFP Regional Director, Ryan Black. It's expected to last roughly 15 to 20 minutes.

They plan to focus the discussion on another potential $1 trillion spending package that would bailout state and local governments.
