Mayor Jacobs Talks About Events, Housing, and a UT Football Wager

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post around 1 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about a number of events he attended, greeting students at some local schools, honoring two Remote Area Medical retirees, and speaking at the Military Order of the Purple Heart’s 2nd Annual Awards Luncheon.

He also talks about the housing front, noting that inventory is up 41 percent compared to this time last year.

Additionally, Mayor Jacobs reminds folks that the Second Saturday Concert Series wraps up this weekend at the Cove at Concord Park from 6-8 p.m. and features Knoxville native Jeff BearCat Bunch. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own blankets, lawn chairs, and food. However, no alcohol is allowed.

“Finally, not that I’m keeping count or anything, but it’s only 22 days until it’s football time in Tennessee as the Vols open their season at Neyland Stadium against the UT Chattanooga Mocs on Aug. 31,” the Mayor adds. “Hmm, I wonder if Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp would be interested in a friendly Mountain Dew versus Moon Pie wager. I’ll be waiting for the call.”
