Mayor Jacobs Talks about the Election, Events, and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update that will post around 1 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs discusses the election, several events he attended, and more.

Mayor Jacobs appreciates everyone who made their way to the polls this past Tuesday. He also recognizes the individuals who are willing to run for elected positions.

“Thank you to all the candidates who were willing to throw their hat in the ring,” says Mayor Jacobs. “It’s never easy to run for elected office, and now more so than ever, so I have a lot of respect for those who put their name on the ballot.”

Knox County Schools took full advantage of their in-service day with a “Teacher Externship” program and Veterans Day Service. The Mayor was honored to attend and speak at those events.

Mayor Jacobs also encourages people to be on the lookout for the Salvation Army’s bell ringers. The Red Kettle campaign starts today and runs through Tuesday, Dec. 24.

Please note, Knox County government offices—including convenience centers, libraries, and the Health Department—will be closed on Monday, Nov. 11, in observance of Veterans Day. All offices will resume normal business operations on Tuesday, Nov. 12, 2024.
