START Center Hosts KCS 865 Academy Students

BACKGROUND: Ninth graders from five different Knox County high schools will participate in an industry experience at the START Center, hosted by the Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater East Tennessee (ABC) as part of the 865 Academies.

Students will be rotating through five hands on learning experiences in the following industry fields: plumbing, welding, electrical, HVAC, and carpentry. Each station is hosted by an industry partner – DR Horton, Lee Company, UTK Maintenance, WB Electric, and TCAT.

Clay Crownover, President and CEO of ABC, will be onsite Monday from 12:15 to 2:45 p.m. for interviews.
